Applicant Questions
Approximately how many times would your clients visit John Ball Zoo in a season?
Approximately how many clients would visit in a single trip to John Ball Zoo?
Will your clients require an employee chaperone while visiting? If not, will they be using your member card, or do you require single-use admission slips to be provided?
Briefly tell us about your organization, who it serves, and why a membership to John Ball Zoo would benefit your clients.
Acknowledgements (please initial)
I understand that ONLY clients being served by my organization and authorized employees may be admitted to John Ball Zoo under the Service/Nonprofit membership.
I understand that the Service/Nonprofit membership is not meant for personal use, and will refrain from using or sharing this membership with employees or family for personal gain.
I understand that the membership card or a signed zoo-provided admission slip is the only identification required for admission, and admission will not be granted without it.
I understand that if we exceed the total number of clients and employees allowed during a single visit, we will be required to purchase tickets for additional visitors.
I understand that groups visiting may not exceed 15 total clients and employees during a single visit.
I will share the rules and requirements of this membership with staff and clients, so they are aware of the expectations.
I understand that John Ball Zoo reserves the right to refuse admission to anyone refusing to meet these expectations.
I have included a copy of the organization's tax exempt status (only required for new applicants)
